From Your President

Namaste!

This month spring arrives in all its glorious splendor, the seasonal symbol of life beginning anew. In a few short months, we will again return to the status of a lay-led fellowship, a big change for many of us.

According to Hans Selye, Austrian endocrinologist, change can be perceived as positive or negative. Regardless of this, change produces stress in individuals and, taken to a larger level, in any system or organization. Stress is “the non specific response of the body to any demand for change.” It is very difficult to define, as it is subjective and varies from individual to individual. There is no yardstick by which to measure it. In his later years, Selye said, “Everyone knows what stress is, but nobody really knows.”

I was always amazed when I worked with loving couples in therapy to find how convenient it was for partners to lash out at each other, rather than bond together, in response to changes from the outside world. I reminded them that they were each others best allies in addressing the stress that both of them felt.

Similarly we are all together in a state of change and stress.

Remember, we are all in covenant with each other at UUFSa.

So, I am asking all of us to stop and consider the acronym, “THINK”, before you speak to a member of your spiritual family with whom you are in covenant.

Is it:

T - Truthful?

H - Helpful?

I - Inspirational?

N - Necessary?

K - Kind?

If your thought passes all those tests, speak your peace. Speak gently with one another as we work together to create a healthy collaboration and continue to grow a meaningful place of fellowship. Spiritually and emotionally, we grow through our positive reactions to change and adversity.

May you never thirst!
Robin Mahonen,
President, UUFSa

Minister's Musings

Spring is almost here and so is the annual Stewardship Campaign. Just as spring is the time of regrowth and renewal, preparing the soil and planting seeds, so is stewardship. Our stewardship campaign is a time to renew lost or strained relationships and plant the seeds of a brighter future. I am pleased the Stewardship Team has chosen to meet with members and friends in small groups and face to face encounters because Stewardship is more than fundraising. While fundraising is critical to maintain the external requirements of our Fellowship (staff, maintenance, utilities, insurance, etc.), the real work, our mission, is wholly relational. The building and all that goes with it exists to facilitate the development of community and the expansion of human relations. As the Stewardship Campaign progresses, I strongly encourage everyone to participate most fully. Your active participation is at least, if not more important, than your pledges.

As we prepare for the annual Stewardship Campaign, it seems appropriate to remind ourselves why we joined this community of faith in the first place. Included in our new member ceremony are these words: "We are not only members of the interdependent web, we are also the keepers of that web, we are each called to serve the web of life, to serve the greater good, to serve each other in the creation of the Beloved Community." This being the case, It could be argued that everything we do as a Fellowship is stewardship in one form or another.

Tom Owen-Towle, UU minister and author, makes that same point in his book Growing a Beloved Community. He writes that we are all called to be stewards of our world, our society, our friends and families, and ourselves. Stewardship in this context, is growing, advancing, and building the gifts that life has given us. Stewardship explicitly recognizes that even though we are not the authors of creation, we are co-creators of our own reality. We create this reality not merely through our thoughts and dreams, but through our actions; we are what we do.

This month, as we begin our Stewardship Campaign, I hope you will consider how this Fellowship embodies and promotes your values. I invite you to share this with others through the small group meetings while learning what is important to others in the Fellowship. Through this sharing of ourselves and the sharing of our gifts, know that you are not being just good stewards of the church but also the world, our community, and yourself.

“It’s Only Business’ and Other Lies We Tell”
Rev. Tom Schmidt

Service Leader: John Porter

It is has become morally acceptable in America to forgive the crimes and atrocities of the corporate elite simply when the deed was done to preserve the bottom line. What is the truth lurking behind the “It’s only business” shield? What are some of the other lies we like to hide behind in America?.

Sunday, March 11, 10:30 a.m.
“Does Climate Change Trump the Golden Rule?”
Warren Clark

Service Leader: Ruth Weber
This I Believe – Dick Lahey

Where Do I Find Hope in Climate Change? In a country addicted to fossil fuels, with leaders denying global warming, it is easy to feel overwhelmed. Warren Clark senses an approaching turning point in public attitude. With stories and humor, Warren will share learnings from leading a successful solar cooperative in St. Johns County. Yet, serious challenges lay ahead as monopolies press to keep their control of energy.

Clark is seeing a tsunami of actions by diverse groups globally and in N.E. Florida to be very good stewards of our only home, the Earth. Dr. Clark speaks of a foundational moral principle in all human societies. Could that golden rule become the opportunity for a fairer world community born from the crisis of climate change?

Warren was born in Jacksonville and raised in Mandarin, FL. He has lived and worked in South and North America creating self-help programs addressing hunger, farm-worker justice and homelessness. Dr. Clark has also pastored Spanish and English-speaking congregations, most recently First United Church (UCC) of Tampa. Warren Clark and Pam Brown have lived in St. Augustine for five years. Warren is active in Compassionate St. Augustine, starting initiatives on criminal justice reform and environmental justice. Warren and Pam's leadership of the St. Johns Solar Cooperative led to receiving the Green Hero of the Year award from the U.S. Green Building Council of N.E. Florida. An historical illustrator, Warren's images are used in classrooms across Florida.

Plate Donation to Home Again St Johns

Imagine, a completely static universe. Imagine that Yin and Yang, darkness and light, hot and cold, male and female, good and evil, were so perfectly balanced that nothing ever changed? As the Spring equinox approaches, let us seek the lessons of the natural world, our most sacred of scriptures.

“Talking Trash:

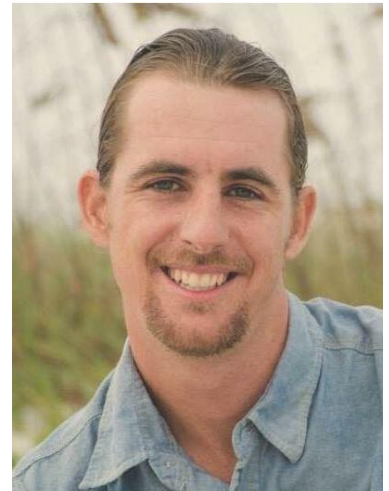

“The impacts of believing the fantasy of ‘away’”

Adam Morley

Service Leader: Robin Mahonen

This talk will cover our current “cradle to grave” waste management practices and why they need to change to ensure a healthier future for generations to come.

Adam Morley is a St. Augustine native and person of many passions and interests. Adam is known as the founder of ANJ Recycling Service, a Captain for St. Augustine Eco Tours, a social dance instructor, a candidate for State House and the owner and operator of Genungs Fish Camp in Crescent Beach. He was awarded the 2017 Living Green Award from the Florida Wildlife Federation and ,while he is proud of his years of local community service, what he is most proud of is his wife, Janine, and their son, Elon, who is his inspiration to take care of this beautiful planet we call home.

Annual Congregational Meeting Sunday, May 20

at noon following brief refreshments after the Sunday service

Please mark your calendars for this very important meeting where we will vote for our 2018-2019 slate of officers as presented by our Nominating Committee.

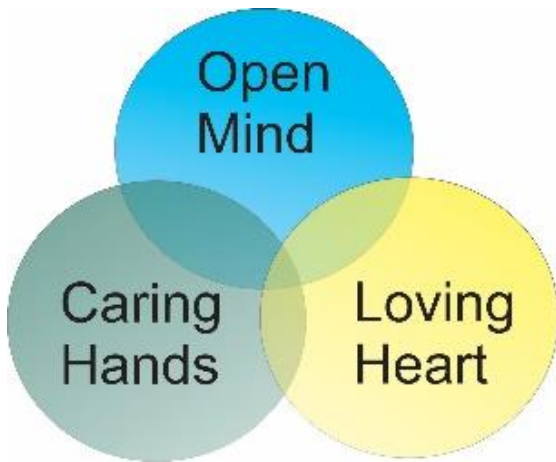

We also will review and vote to approve the budget proposed by the Finance Committee and the Board, and vote on a number of other issues related to our membership in the larger UUA family and critical to the ongoing operation of our Fellowship.

We hope to see you there!

Budget Workshops and Pledge Drive in March

A series of small group budget workshop meetings will be held in March. Members will have an opportunity to meet in a structured small group to review the preliminary budget passed recently by the Board for the next year (July 2018 - June 2019). The Stewardship Team will be presenting these workshops to give each member an opportunity to learn and ask questions about the upcoming budget. Details of dates and times for these workshops will be announced soon. Your input at these workshops will be used by the Board in determining any needed changes to the budget to be presented to the Fellowship at the Annual Congregational Meeting on May 20th. The Stewardship Committee will be following up with all members individually on a pledge for the upcoming year during March. This is a transition year for the Fellowship as we revert to a lay-led Fellowship. Your support is vital.

Programs for Children and Youth

Our children were delighted to report that our Fellowship raised $847.62 during the Guest at Your Table fundraiser for the UU Service Committee. This money will help support the UUSC's human rights work around the world. Thank you for your generosity!

In their classes, our children continued to think about charitable organizations that serve our society. Our children were invited to select the charity that will receive donations from our Share the Plate during the month of February. They first thought about all the different needs our society has and identified what type of effort they would like to support. Then they selected a local charity focused on that effort. They decided they wanted to support organizations focused on the care of animals, and they selected Ayla's Acres No-Kill Animal Rescue, Inc. In addition to being a no-kill animal rescue organization, Ayla's Acres is a sanctuary for more than 200 "unadoptable" domestic and farm animals. It is also currently developing "Peter's Friends Animal Resource Center", a 20-acre property in St. John's county that will focus on the rescue, care and adoption of cats and dogs.

Each month, our children will continue to collect food from members of our congregation for the Ecumenical Food Pantry. We thank all in our Fellowship for their active participation in this effort to feed the hungry. With these activities we hope to make our children aware of our society's needs and to instill in them the fundamental idea of giving.

Bending Florida Toward Justice

Members Mary Kellough, Claudia Atkins, Nana Royer, and Friend Marsha Williams made a road trip to Tallahassee January 22-23 to attend UU Justice Florida's Legislative Days.

We dined at the UU Tallahassee church and listened to dynamic keynote speaker Desmond Meade speak just hours before it was official that there were enough votes to get the Voting Restoration amendment on the Florida ballot. Desmond is the person responsible for heading up the campaign to restore full citizenship rights to ex-felons who have paid their debt to society and are free people. After his release from prison he went on to obtain an education, including a law degree; however, he has heretofore been unable to practice law due to his lack of voting rights.

The next day we visited our legislators' offices, lobbying for bills which UUFJ supports as being reflective of our spiritual values. We also sat in on a couple of committee meetings, which was most enlightening. Ask one of us one thing we learned. You may be surprised.

We are now lobbying our congregation to make an annual contribution, at $1.00 per member. Congregations that support the work of UUJF will be listed on their honor roll.

Visit their website at www.uujusticefl.org . Let's show our support for this worthwhile action-oriented arm of UU by donating, as well as by attending next year's Legislative Days.

Welcoming Restrooms

We are announcing some minor changes to our restrooms, which will take effect on April 1st.

Several years ago, working toward the goal of being ADA (Americans with Disabilities) compliant, we adapted our facilities to include a ramp for wheelchair access to both the front and back entrances/exits. Although both of our restrooms have grab bars for handicapped usage, neither is so labelled at this time.

As we move toward becoming more welcoming to families with young children and infants, we need to provide an appropriate changing table for babies.

As we move toward the goal of becoming a UUA recognized "Welcoming Congregation", we are faced with several tasks. In addition to being a host for our local PFLAG chapter, providing Sunday services and other activities for the LGBTQ community, we will be making some alterations to the configuration and labeling of our restrooms.

Presently we have signs on our restroom doors which indicate "Women" and "Men". At this point in the life of our congregation, we are unable to shoulder the very significant financial investment in adding another restroom to accommodate all these diverse needs. Members of our Buildings & Grounds and Beautification Teams have come up with a clever and cost saving compromise as follows:

- 1- The current "Men's" Room is being converted to a single use "Family" restroom. There will be a lock inside the restroom on the door which leads to the hallway. The large flat area will be adapted for the installation of a changing table for babies. The signage will reflect "Family" restroom and also indicate handicapped accessibility.
- 2- The "Women's" restroom will remain the same as it is presently, with a change of signage to reflect "Handicapped Accessible".

We affirm the inherent worth and dignity of all those who come through our doors. Thank you for your cooperation in helping us to recognize and appropriately respond to the diverse needs of this welcoming fellowship.

March 18 UU POT LUCK

Mark your calendar for our March 18 Beloved Potluck immediately following Sunday Service. Please bring something to share. Lovingly prepared food is the lubricant of conversation and community building. Be mindful that we have vegetarians and vegans amongst the omnivores. The volunteer host team to date is Claudia Atkins, Christy Sanford, and Rosemary Comtois for set up/clean up. We could use one more person to help with clean up. email Pat Maguire maguire-p@hotmail.com

Drum Circle

Tuesday, March 13, 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

The Second Tuesday Drum Circle at UU continues! It will take place Tuesday, March 13 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. Michael "Derm" Dermody will facilitate. Drums will be provided. Children and friends are welcome. Fun guaranteed!

Health and Healing Circle

Tuesday, March 20, 7:00 p.m.

More and more the evidence shows us how meditation and contemplative prayer serve to calm the mind and so reduce stress hormones that promote inflammation and disease in the body. Thus, prayer and meditation are not about bending the universe to our whims; they are about aligning ourselves to the natural order of things. Rev. Schmidt is facilitating a monthly prayer and healing circle that will use the well-documented power of intention and mediation for health and healing on the third Tuesday of each month. Everyone is welcome.

Great Decisions

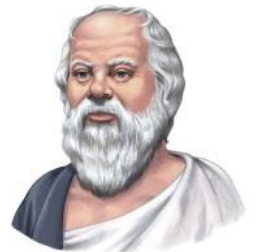

Wednesday, March 7, 7:00 p.m.

GREAT DECISIONS, an initiative of the Foreign Policy Association, is America's largest discussion program on world affairs.

During the first months of Donald Trump's presidency, the U.S. began a historic shift away from Pax Americana, the liberal international order that was established in the wake of World War II. Since 1945, Pax Americana has promised peaceful international relations and an open economy, buttressed by U.S. military power. In championing "America First" isolationism and protectionism, President Trump has shifted the political mood toward selective U.S. engagement, where foreign commitments are limited to areas of vital U.S. interest and economic nationalism is the order of the day. Geopolitical allies and challengers alike are paying close attention.

The next Great Decisions topic will be "The Waning of Pax Americana" - led by Louis Post. Background material available at <https://tinyurl.com/y9jufoxm> (16MB PDF).

Downstairs Dialogue

"Socrates Café" – Open Discussion

Sunday, March 11, 9:15 - 10:15 a.m. Downstairs

This month, we will gather again for Downstairs Dialogue on the second Sunday, March 11, for an open dialogue on topics of the day that interest and concern us.

What's going on in religion, politics, economics, security, justice, etc. in the world, nation, state, local community, or even within our own congregation? Would an open-minded sharing and discussion among thoughtful UUs in our traditional safe space be of interest? Maybe even come up with some ideas to make things better? We think so!

We will decide what topic(s) to discuss using the Socrates Cafe method used successfully at our local Council on Aging. At the beginning of the session, each attendee will suggest a topic, and we will "vote" on which one(s) to discuss. Topics should be of general interest. And since we are a religious institution, topics should typically have some connection to our UU Principles. Discussion led by Charlie West.

So bring your favorite issue or question and come join us at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday, March 11.

Co-chair, Adult Learning

Service Auction Report

Our main fundraiser of the year, the UUFSA Annual Service Auction, was held Saturday, January 20, 2018. It's time to share the results and to give thanks to all who contributed.

Forty services were auctioned off during both the 2017 and 2018 auctions. In 2018, the Service Auction (including the Silent Auction and 50/50 raffle sales) took in $5,259.00 from 34 bidders. In 2017 the intake was $6,493.00 from 46 bidders.

Both the 2017 and 2018 service auctions were quite a success, not only in terms of fundraising, but also by bringing individuals in our Fellowship together. The main event, the live auction, is a fun event. And the hospitality hour leading up to it, as well as the silent auction – with intense raffle ticket sales – is fun too! For the rest of the year, as service offers are fulfilled, people come together in enjoyable ways that help build community feelings in our Fellowship.

THANK YOU to all the people who make an event like this happen:

- Cal Marshall and Chuck Chambers were the live auctioneers. Chuck also created the auction catalog.
- Pat Maguire and Cal Marshall made and donated 50 new bid paddles. Pat also passed out receipts to winning bidders during the auction.
- Ray Adman provided audio-visual service during the live auction.
- Christy Sanford, Yosi McIntire, Jerome & Chris Fosaaen, Maria Ransdell and Don Brandes set up hospitality hour and/or donated food and drink for it.
- Robin Mahonen was the evening's MC, and she sold 50-50 raffle tickets for many Sundays leading up to auction day.
- Priscilla Gulliver and Joyce Peterson organized the silent auction.
- Ruth Weber was the head cashier, assisted by Fred Dolgin and Ed Mahonen.
- Jennifer De La Rosa provided child care during the auction.
- Marsh Williams, Pat Willott, Rosi Angeli, Pat Maguire, Cal Marshall, Don Brandes and Chuck Chambers stayed to clean up after the auction.

On The Town

The movie for March 23rd will be that favorite "On The Town." The Bronx is up but the Battery is down and the people ride around in a hole in the ground. New York, New York a helluva town, with Gene Kelly, a young Frank Sinatra, the very underrated Jules Munshin, Vera Ellen, Ann Miller and, later to be black-listed, the very talented Betty Garret. It's a lighthearted romp through New York by three adventurous sailors with 24 hours to have the time of their life.
